

CPAC Meeting Minutes
February 13, 2025

Roll call: Eric Stender, Carl Duewer, Nancy Robertson, Pam Johnson, Tyler Wenger, Betty Edison, Dominic Valenti. Grace Irvin, Colin Witt and Marilyn Stout attended online.

Eric opened the meeting at 3:15 and asked for a motion to accept the minutes from the January meeting. Carl moved to accept the minutes. Betty seconded. Motion carried.

Treasurer's report: The report showed a balance of $3,418.82. Nancy moved to accept the report. Betty seconded. Motion carried.

Old business: C3 mentoring on February 5th included the pizza activity and the character trait discussed was integrity. The number of concession bucks dispensed at the ICMS basketball game was $72.

Popcorn stickers are in place.

Scholarship forms for eligible student leaders have been given to Mrs. Means. The due date is March 1st.

Recommendations will be given at the next CPAC meeting.

New business: Chestnut- The alcohol campaign continues.

Arlee theater ads have been renewed for 2025.

Direct mailers have gone out to parents.

The drug take-back is in April.

The Mason Coordinating Council is hosting a health fair at IC on April 25th. The fair is both educational and interactive to educate students (and parents) about what services are available. CPAC can have a presence at the fair. Carl suggested that Chestnut bring "the wheel".

Student leaders- It's time to identify student leaders for the next school year.

Prevention- Events on the schedule are: drug take-back on April 26th, messaging for the play/musical, prom on May 3rd (no theme yet), Your Actions Matter (possible help from student council), Prevention Week (chalk messaging from middle school was mentioned), and Character of a Champion (links) at the grade school.

The C3 field trip is scheduled for April 16th at Malibu Jack's. The school will take care of transportation. Final details need to be worked out. Malibu Jack's will accept a check as payment on the day of the trip.

High school graduation is on May 17th. Honors day will be the week before. CPAC needs to ask to be on the program in order to present the scholarship winner(s).

The IGA cookout is scheduled for June 28th with the possibility of scheduling a second date.

The Annual Meeting will be on March 13th with voting for officers. The slate remains the same as last year with the exception of Carl running for vice-president and Betty running for trustee. Additional trustees are needed. Some names suggested were Jim Winkelman, Luke Wolford, Tracey Olsen, and Jordan Harris.

Grace asked Eric to send a "wish list" to Chestnut.

Confirmation of next meeting: The next meeting will be on March 13th at 3:15 at the Mason City Library.

Adjournment: Carl moved to adjourn. Pam seconded. Motion carried.

Respectfully submitted,

Marilyn Stout

C3 Mentoring Feedback- February's character trait was integrity. The consensus was that the discussion was difficult. Some thought that the spiral was repetitive. Eric said that the lessons in the spiral build to help fine-tune SMARTer goals. Perhaps the book should be picked apart to make a book of lessons that are used. In March, SMARTer goals will be pre-taught in advisory. The lesson will be reviewed at C3 mentoring with starter ideas.
